Rooted in Love, Grounded in Grace, Growing for God

Dear Friends,

As we enter the Fall season, it is fair to say that these past two years have been a trial and tribulation for all of us. It is important for us to live into and latch onto the promises of God. For our next series of columns, let us take time to explore what God promised to us. If you have a favorite promise, please let me know that we can incorporate the promise that has touched you into our discussion in this column.

There are many chapters of the New Testament that are rich in promises. The next one that we will look at is Romans 8. Please take time to live into this chapter. Read it and ponder it. Let it speak to you.

This chapter begins with the great affirmation that those who are in Christ Jesus will not receive condemnation. Jesus has set us free from the need to sin, has forgiven us for sin, and thus we are not condemned by God for our sin.

Then we are asked to focus our mind on the things of the Spirit. We are to push out those thoughts related to the things of this world, the flesh. Instead we are to have our mind set on life and the Spirit. The reason for this is that the flesh is a mindset of slavery whereas the Spirit is a mindset of freedom.

There is power in following the Spirit. Or as Paul wrote, "The Spirit of God who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you." The power of the resurrection is available to us on a regular basis. We just need to live into it.

The next aspect that I would like to focus on is the fact that our sufferings are not permanent. In fact, they are there to help us grow into the person that God created us to be. In verse 18, Paul wrote that the sufferings of this present age are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. Now this could mean the concept of heaven, but it could also mean that God will reveal His love and power in us as we live through our sufferings. Our sufferings reveal the awesome grace and love of the Savior.

Finally, I would like for us to look at the last two verses, verses 38 and 39. Paul reaches his poetic height when he stated that nothing can separate us from the love of God as found in Jesus Christ. It put it better than I can, but in this moment, he highlighted that no matter the force in the world today or ever will be, we cannot be separated from God's love unless we choose to.

May these words touch you and as we go deeper in the Word, we truly become rooted in love, grounded in grace, and thus grow for God.

Your faithful servant,
Pastor Mark

Presbyterian Women

Last month, we began this year's Bible Study, "Celebrating Sabbath: Accepting God's Gift of Rest and Delight". We will study passages from the Old and New Testament that help us understand the Sabbath and God's intent for all His creation. God has honored us by giving us the precious gift of a day each week to reset our pace, our priorities, and our lives. In September, we learned that Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath. Jesus said, "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

Please join us Tuesday, October 11, as we continue this fascinating Bible Study. Pastor Mark will lead both the morning and the evening Bible studies. The daytime group meets from 10:00-11:15 a.m. and is recorded on Facebook live. The evening group meets 7:00-8:15 p.m., with childcare provided as needed. Please let Terri Long know if you require childcare, (301)991-7803. We meet at St. Andrew the second Tuesday of every month, September through May. Workbooks are available for $10.00 and will be available at both Bible Studies. Please join one of our groups to grow deeper in your faith through the spiritual discipline of scripture study with others.

Coordinating Team

The Coordinating Team will meet on Tuesday, October 11, 8:30a.m., in the Friendship Hall.

Library

Fall is often a time of reunions, mysteries, and trick or treat "gifts". These books, read during previous book clubs, meet those criteria.

The Reunion, by Dan Walsh, is a story of God's redeeming love, second changes, and how one's current life situation may mask past heroism.

Echo's of the Titanic, by Mindy Starns Clark, weaves a tale of mystery about a survivor of the Titanic and her family's legacy. Titanic's fateful journey mingles with modern day corporate intrigue.

Verdict on the Shroud, by Kenneth E. Stevenson, tells about the examination and test completed to determine the authenticity of the Shroud of Turin's mysterious image. Colored photographs from research are included.

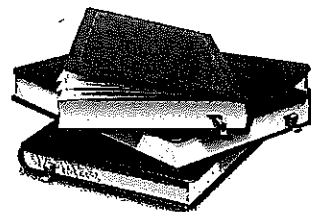

Trick or treaters often expect to receive candy "gifts" with minimal gratitude. In Jim Stovall's The Ultimate Gift, beneficiaries, eager to collect inheritances from a wealthy loved one, learn about the "tricks and treats" that are in store for them. This is a great message of hope and faith.

Check out these or other books from the library.

Book Club

If you love to read and enjoy good discussion, come and join our Day time and or our evening Book Club, Tuesday, October 4. 7:00 pm The book that we will be studying will be "What If Jesus Had Never Lived" by D. James Kennedy.

The day time Book Club will be meeting on Monday, October 17, 1:00 p.m. We will be reading the book "The Glass Blowers", by Patra Durst-Benning

Harvest Hoedown

Fall has arrived and with it comes thoughts of autumn leaves, pumpkins and WAIT, the annual Williamsport Harvest Hoedown! Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 1, as we at St. Andrew once again participate in the Hoedown by hosting the much loved scarecrow patch. Kids young and old flock to our area at Byron Park to make and take home their scarecrows. We will put premade scarecrows together on September 25, 5:00 p.m. All proceeds go to the Williamsport Food Bank Ministries.

We need LOTS of help from our St. Andrew family! So, you say you can't help due to allergies? Not a problem! There are several volunteer jobs available, actually most of them, where you do not have to get into the hay. If many people volunteer that day for 1 hour, our scarecrow patch will run smoothly. Students looking for community service hours will find this a fun way to earn hours. Look for sign-up sheets in the parlor soon.

We still need small people clothes, baby onesie scarecrows are the most popular, so check out local yard sales to donate. The Harvest Hoedown is the largest fundraiser for our Williamsport food pantry.

Let us at St. Andrew live our love of Christ by volunteering to help on October 1st. Contact Shirley Fox 301-785-5010 with any questions. Hope to see you all there!

Each year the Christian Education Committee invites a motivational speaker to share wisdom, insight, and biblical truths from the Bible. Last year we invited one of our own who grew up in the St. Andrew Church, Brian Sandell. Brian's message was so well received last year that the Committee decided to ask him back once again. Brian is a pastor in Altoona, Pennsylvania, and he was a youth pastor for 4 years in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania. For all the "Old Timers" at church, we have seen Brian grow up in the church. He was only 6 years old when we came to St. Andrew. We hope that the church family can come to hear the biblical wisdom that Brian will share with us on Sunday night, October 9 at 6:00 p.m. in the Legacy Hall. Refreshments will be served. If you need a babysitter, please let Pastor Mark or Annette know. His topic will be "Having the Faith of David and How to Stand firm before your Goliath". Please sign up if you will be attending. Sign up sheet is in the parlor. Thank you so much. Hope that you can join us for a wonderful evening of biblical learning and a time of fellowship.

Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Project

For more than 25 years Samaritan's Purse has collected shoeboxes filled with gifts and delivered them to children in need around the world. Each box is an opportunity for a boy or girl to experience the love of God in a tangible way and to hear the Gospel.

Many boys and girls who receive shoebox gifts enroll in the Samaritan's Purse discipleship program, "The Greatest Journey" where they learn to follow Christ and share Him with others. It all starts with a simple gift. Will you prayerfully consider joining us in this exciting ministry?

In a few weeks you will receive more detailed information in your bulletin and the Shoe Boxes will be placed in the parlor for you to pickup and fill. You will also receive a brochure to help guide you in filling the shoe box.

Once the box is filled please return it to the church. We will arrange for it to be shipped to a processing center and then to need children around the world.

Thank you for making a child happy this Christmas.

Blessing Bags

If you have been counting your blessings over the summer, please return your blessing bag now. You can give your bag to Fran Quinn or Lynn Lowman. You can also place your blessing beg in the offering plate or return to the church office.
