Twenty Third Sunday after Pentecost October 27, 2024

In Preparation for Worship

God of justice and righteousness, have mercy upon us as we confess our sin. We say we love our neighbors, but we still make distinctions. We favor the rich and discount the poor. We say we have faith, but our words do not show it; we preach Jesus Christ while we send the hungry away. While our lips praise you, our hands cast off strangers. We are not worthy to ask your forgiveness except for the name of Christ, who pardoned the thief on the cross and forgave those who put Him to death.

Invocation

Call to Worship

Leader: Incline your ear and hear my wisdom and apply your mind to my teaching.

People: It will be pleasant if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.

Leader: So that your trust may be in the Lord I have made them known to you today.

People: The rich and poor have this in common: the Lord is the maker of them all.
