

Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

August 30, 2026

In Preparation for Worship

Jesus seeks obedience in response to his ministry. He shows genuine compassion for people. He cares for them, cleansing them of their infirmities. Yet He does not want to be known only as a worker of miracles, so He teaches those He heals to give God the glory, and faithfully to follow God's commands. But the people are thinking more about what Jesus can do for them than about what they can do for Him.

Call to Worship

Leader: Sing praise to the Lord, O you faithful one, and give thanks to God's holy name.

People: Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me! O Lord, be my helper!

Leader: You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have clothed me with joy,

People: So that my soul may praise you and not be silent. O Lord, my God, I will praise you forever.
